

Michael Brandstetter takes over the Brose Business Division Exterior

Coburg (09. July 2024) Michael Brandstetter (50) becomes the new Brose Executive Board Member for the Business Division Exterior. He was appointed by the family company's Supervisory Board with effect from August 1, 2024.

Mr. Brandstetter takes over for Christof Vollkommer (56), who has asked to dissolve his contract for health reasons and will leave Brose at the end of July. The Supervisory Board and Executive Board very much regret Mr. Vollkommer's decision and thank him for his great personal commitment over the past 41 years. They wish him all the best for his personal and professional future.

Mr. Brandstetter studied business administration at the University of Regensburg. Since 2006 he has held various management positions within the Brose Door Systems Business Division before moving to the newly created joint venture Brose Sitech in 2022. There he was responsible for transformation and global sales before being appointed Executive Board Member for Sales and Operations in April 2023.
